1. Special Civil Application No. 11461 of 2001

MR SATISH R PATEL for Petitioner No. 1

GOVERNMENT PLEADER for Respondents No. 1-3

MR D.P. JOSHI, AGP for Respondent State

CORAM : MR.JUSTICE A.L.DAVE

Date of decision: 29/01/2002

ORAL JUDGEMENT

The petitioner came to be detained by virtue of an order dated 5.9.2001 passed by the Police Commissioner, Baroda City, Baroda in exercise of power under Section 3 of the PASA Act.

2. The grounds of detention indicate that the petitioner has been branded as a dangerous person. The detaining authority has considered three registered offences against the detenu. The detaining authority has also considered statements of three anonymous witnesses recorded on 24.7.2001, 25.7.2001 and 26.7.2001, which were verified on 18.8.2001 and 20.8.2001 and passed the order on 5.9.2001.

3. The detaining authority observed that the petitioner is required to be immediately prevented from pursuing his illegal and anti-social activities and resorting to less drastic remedy under ordinary law is not possible as immediate prevention is necessary and therefore, passed the order in exercise of powers under Section 3 of the PASA Act.

4. The petitioner seeks to challenge the said order by this petition under Article 226 of the of Constitution of India on various grounds. The learned Advocate for the petitioner Mr. Patel submitted that the order stands vitiated only on the ground that the satisfaction recorded by the detaining authority for urgent need for detention is not genuine. To support his version, he submitted that the statement of witnesses were recorded on 24.7.2001, 25.7.2001 and 26.7.2001, which were verified on 18.8.2001 and 20.8.2001, however the order was passed after about 15 days on 5.9.2001. If the satisfaction for the urgent detention was genuine, the order would have been passed immediately and therefore the order may be quashed.

5. Learned AGP Mr. Joshi has opposed to this petition.

6. Having regard to the contention raised before this Court, the grounds of detention indicate that the detaining authority observed that the detenu is a dangerous, his activity results in disturbance to public order, action against him under ordinary law will have no effect on him, that it is not possible to prevent him from pursuing his activities by taking action under ordinary law and therefore, he is required to be immediately detained under PASA. This subjective satisfaction does not appear to be genuine for the reason that the detaining authority had verified the statement on 18th Aug. 2001 and 20th Aug. 2001, but the order of detention came to be passed only after 15 days on 5.9.2001. If the satisfaction recorded by the authority was really genuine, the action would have been taken much earlier and order would have been passed earlier. The satisfaction therefore is not genuine in law. The order of detention therefore stands vitiated. The petition deserves to be allowed only on this count.

7. The petition is therefore, allowed. Order of detention dated 5th September, 2001 passed by the Police Commissioner, Baroda City, Baroda is quashed and set aside. Detenu Guru Kishandutt Tiwari be released from detention forthwith, if not required in any other case. Rule made absolute. No costs. Direct service permitted.
